SIXTH DISCOVERY ORDER

Case Nos. )

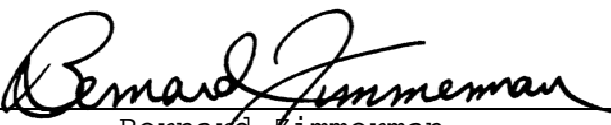

C06-2069 SBA (Smith) and )
C06-5411 SBA (Ballard) )

_____
To the extent that Wal-Mart's August 17 letter constitutes a request for reconsideration, it is DENIED. It should be obvious to Wal-Mart that the court was not improperly influenced by plaintiffs' assertion that Wal-Mart had not produced any documents. The Fifth Discovery Order expressly states that Wal-Mart need not produce documents it has already produced. If Wal-Mart believes there was a Rule 11 violation, it has its remedies.

It should also be obvious to Wal-Mart that proposing time tables for producing documents that were first sought on May

1 15, 2007, which contemplate production long after the class
2 certification issues are briefed or heard is unacceptable.
3 Nonetheless, the court ORDERS that the deadlines contained in 4 the Fifth Discovery Order [except for lodging the meet and
5 confer record] are each extended by one week.
